

Home Energy Assistance Target (HEAT) Program

Do you need help paying your home energy bills? The HEAT program provides energy assistance to low income households throughout the state of Utah. Assistance is on a one time basis and is subject to a qualifying process. You must reapply each program year (October 1st to September 30th). See details below for qualifying:

Eligibility Requirements for HEAT Assistance:

- The total household income is at or below 150% of the Federal Poverty Level
- The household is responsible for paying home energy costs
- The household contains at least one US citizen or qualified non-citizen
- The household must contain at least one adult (18 years of age or older OR emancipated)

Necessary Documentation:

A copy of your electrical/power, heat (Dominion, Propane, etc.) utility bills
Proof of ALL income received by all household members in the month prior to the month of your application	n
Proof of any eligible medical expenses, child support and alimony any member of the home paid in the month prior to the month of your application
Proof of disability, if applicable
Additional documentation, if required
Fill out and complete an application

The Income levels are listed in the Federal Poverty Level chart below. We are required to use Gross amounts, but do allow for a 20% working wages income disregard. Any Medical paid out of pocket in the eligibility month can be used as a deduction. This includes but is not limited to: health insurance, copays, prescriptions, dental, eye care, etc. Child support or alimony paid out of pocket it also an allowable deduction. Receipts must be provided.

Penalty for Fraud: The State of Utah Department of Workforce Services takes fraud of public assistance benefits very seriously and prosecutes violators to the full extent of the law. We have access to a variety of fraud detection systems and work with federal, state, and local law enforcement to prosecute instances of abuse of public assistance such as not reporting income, lying about who lives in your home, and selling your benefits for drugs, money, (trafficking). We are here to help you if you are eligible, but be aware if you intend to commit fraud and are caught, you will face severe legal penalties, including potential benefit disqualification, overpayment recovery, other monetary penalties, and potential jail time. If you apply, or are on public assistance, honesty is your best option, don't risk the consequences of committing fraud.

DECLARATION: By signing this application, I certify under penalty of perjury that the information I provided on this application is true, and that giving false information may result in my application being denied, debarment from the program, and/or me paying the difference between any eligible and ineligible amounts. I understand that neither the vendor nor the percentage of my HEAT payment may be changed. I agree to cooperate with state and federal officials in any review of my application and to provide information necessary to verify any statement herein. I give permission for my utility companies to provide my billing and usage information to the state of Utah and to local HEAT agencies to determine eligibility. I hereby authorize HEAT program officials to make inquiry of persons, companies, financial institutions, and other state and federal agencies to assist in the processing of my application. I further authorize HEAT program officials to share the information from my application and case file, including my private and personal information, with those entities as authorized by law. I understand that if I do not provide the necessary information to establish my eligibility within 10 days from this date that my application may be denied. I further understand that if federal HEAT funds are exhausted prior to processing this application, the State of Utah is under no obligation to make payment. I understand that if my application is denied or if the local office has failed to act upon my application within 45 days, I have the right to request a Fair Hearing. I verify that, if eligible, I would like to receive the Rocky Mountain Power (RMP) HELP discount program and Dominion Energy Energy Assistance Fund (EAF) credit.
